B Additional information about the assignment:

1. The work of the volunteer pertains to refugees as follows (please tick as many as are applicable):
- Assistance and support for refugees in finding shelter and provisions (e.g. refugee camps, accommodation etc.).
 - Immediate support and help for refugees to find their way in society and integrate into everyday life (e.g. as integration adviser, accompanying refugees to local authority offices and doctors' appointments, as translator and/or interpreter, etc.).
 - Assistance and support for refugees in the area of education (e.g. childcare institutions, schools, adult education, etc.).
 - Assistance and support for refugees in leisure time activities with a focus on integration (sports, culture, youth work, etc.).
 - Coordination and organisation of civil society action for the benefit of refugees (e.g. sorting and distributing donations, distributing food, planning volunteer rotas, etc.).
 - As a refugee for all permitted work in the approved assignment location.
2. The assignment of the aforementioned volunteer shall, as of the start of the assignment, take place outside the approved assignment location – secondment – (please tick as applicable)
- Yes No

This information is strictly required, even if work outside the assignment location is intended to be only part of the assignment or of a temporary nature.
If no secondment is intended at this stage but takes place at a later point in time the BAFzA must be informed without delay.

As the dispatching assignment location you undertake to ensure the following:

- The volunteer will be given extensive information on the type and scope of the secondment and consents to the secondment. The volunteer's consent must be obtained in writing and filed by the assignment location.
- The volunteer's assignment will take place only in areas focussed on the common good, not for commercially active subcontractors such as surveillance, catering or cleaning services.
- The assignment location's obligations to the volunteer from the Volunteer Agreement continue to apply.
- The volunteer will be fully insured also when working at the place of secondment.
- Any special preventive measures required for work at the place of secondment (e.g. vaccinations) will be organised and the associated costs will be paid.
- The volunteer will continue to receive pedagogical support from the dispatching assignment location.
